Brief History Hunnicutt-Haworth-Bailey Family and Connections
According to Thomas E. Hunnicutt, May 28, 1921

Walter D. Hunnicutt Line through Charles Hunnicutt, 1867-1945.

Line Irene, 1866; Charles, 1867; Edward, 1868; Elizabeth (Powers), April 12, 1870; Almira (Bailey), September 5, 1871; Eva (Harris), 1875. These are the children of David and Martha Ross Hunnicutt.

David's brothers and sisters are: Catherine (Underwood) 1837, David, 1838 (August 15); John Oliver; Daniel B., March 19, 1842; Mary (Speer), October 25, 1844; Wilson, 1846; Thomas, May 28, 1848; Anne (McPherson), 1851.

Charles Hunnicutt married Delena Haworth February 15, 1893; David Hunnicutt married Martha Ross May 5, 1865; David's father was Thomas and his mother's maiden name was Susannah Bailey. Thomas Hunnicutt was born June 13, 1811, in Prince George County, Virginia, near Stony Creek Friends Meeting, south of Petersburg. He had two brothers and two sisters and one half-brother (by father); oldest brother was John Hunnicutt who settled and died near Kokomo, Indiana. Next was Macajah who lived with his mother and built the Francis Bangham place buildings. He had no children. Sisters were Mary Ann who married John E. Peebles and they settled near Wabash, Indiana. Florence Gallimore's grandmother was this Mary Ann. The next sister was Martha Jane, Izzie Bobbitt's mother, who married John Oren as his second wife, living near Dover.

The above Thomas Hunnicutt (1811) was son of Thomas Hunnicutt of Prince George County, Virginia, and Elizabeth Peebles Hunnicutt. This Elizabeth was Dover John Peebles' aunt. (We are interested in Dover John Peebles because he was father of Dave Peebles of Wilmington and Auber Peebles's grandfather.) She was a sister of Johnathan Bailey's mother whose maiden name was Almeda Peebles. This Johnathan was thus a first cousin of Thomas Hunnicutt (1811) and also of his wife Susannah Bailey Hunnicutt because his father, David Bailey, was a brother of Susannah Bailey Hunnicutt's father Daniel Bailey the pioneer.

This Daniel Bailey came through in 1804 (single) and lived the first winter in a hollow sycamore tree on the bank of Toods Fork and settled on the present Strickle place near Dover. (Patched own pants in hollow log. Indian watched and said "no squaw.") While David Bailey, a brother, came in 1827 and settled on the William Haworth farm. Along with David Bailey in 1827 came Thomas Hunnicutt, (1811), and his mother, Elizabeth Peebles Hunnicutt. We don't know when his father, Thomas Hunnicutt of Virginia, was born, but he was a Quaker and is buried in Prince George County, Virginia near where a Quaker quarterly meeting was held. We lose out here but we know that he was descended from one of the three brothers who came from Scotland in 1728. Linton Hunnicutt has a watch that one of these brothers bought in London and brought with him. However, the Virginia Thomas Hunnicutt's wife (widow) Elizabeth Peebles Hunnicutt, came and bought the farm known as the Francis Bangham farm across from Uncle Alton Haworth's farm (at that time it belonged to Jeeze Barnett and she bought it from him). Macajah Hunnicutt bought it from his mother's estate. Elizabeth Hunnicutt is buried at Dover (no stone). She must have died in the Forties. This concludes all we know about Thomas Hunnicutt's (1811) parents.

We now take up David Hunnicutt's mother, Susannah Bailey Hunnicutt, daughter of Daniel Bailey the pioneer. She was born February 9, 1810, or three days before Clinton County was organized, which was February 12, 1810. She had five sisters and four brothers. The order of ages of the girls was Martha Bailey Oren, then Susannah, then Sarah B. Hunt, then Joanna B. Oren, then Elizabeth (Aunt Betsy) Bailey, a girl who died in infancy, and Mary B. Hornaday. The boys were George Bailey (Luther's grandfather); David (not the Virginia emigrant); Josiah, inventor of the auger bit (Albert Bailey's father); Daniel, Jr. son of the emigrant who married Aseneth Underwood, sister of William Underwood. This Daniel was the father of Nathan Bailey. Martha Bailey Oren (Patsy) was the first wife of John Oren who, after her death, married Martha Jane Hunnicutt (sister of my great-grandfather Thomas). Her children were Eli Oren, Eliza Speer (Sammy's wife), Bailey Oren who died in the Civil War, Asa Oren who moved to Iroquois County, Illinois; Henry who died in the Union army, belonging to the same company as Uncle Dan Hunnicutt, (Company C, 79th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry), Martha Oren South who died in Iroquois County, Illinois. Sarah Bailey Hunt who married Nathan Hunt at Martinsville. She left one child, David Hunt.

Joanna Bailey Oren married John A. Oren (a nephew of the above John Oren). Her children were Alfred, Mary, who died single, Sarah Ann Wright who lived near Lexington, James Oren, Chalkley Oren, Maggie McCoy who is wife of Hugh McCoy, Susan O. McCoy who is no relation of Hugh, Daniel Oren and John Oren, neither of whom had children.

Elizabeth (Betsy) Bailey who lived in house back of Will Starbucks (I remember her) and who died single. Mary Bailey Hornaday, wife of John Hornaday. Their children, Allen and Albert left this country.

George Bailey who married Lydia Shields. Their children were Delitha B. Compton and William Bailey whose children were Cliff and Corwin Bailey; Hannah Mary Bailey Carrol of Harveysburg and her husband was Joseph Carrol; Josiah H. (Little Josiah) Bailey whose wife was Sydney McPherson, their children were Luther Bailey; Sylvia Bailey who died single; Enos P. Bailey whose first wife was a Hiney, by this union came George Bailey of Wilmington, second marriage was to Belle Paukett woman who gave birth to Elmer Bailey. This finishes George Bailey's children.

David Bailey (not emigrant but brother of Susannah) his wife was a Janney, a niece of the second wife of Richard Haworth. His son Joseph was killed in the last battle of the Civil War, fine looking man. Josiah Bailey the inventor (brother of Susannah.) He married a Jenkins, daughter of Israel Jenkins. Their children were: Hannah Bailey Pidgeon who married David Pidgeon now in California, who was a brother of Henry Pidgeon; Albert Bailey of Wilmington who married Mary Hussey; Maryanna Starbuck, wife of W. A. Starbuck.

Daniel Bailey (not the pioneer but brother of Susannah). He married Asenith Underwood, a sister of Uncle William Underwood. Their children were Amon Bailey (know nothing of him, died Topeka); Nathan Bailey who had three children, lives in Lawrence, Kansas; Edith Evans who also lives in Lawrence. She is the mother of Jess Willard's wife. Milo Bailey who lives in northern Montana; Mary Anna Bailey Vaughn who is in California (home in Kansas, Sumner County); "twins" Hattie Bailey Weightman living in California, Lottie Bailey living in Oklahoma; Elmer Bailey, lived in California; Albert Bailey (youngest) know nothing of him.

Susannah Bailey Hunnicutt's father was Daniel Bailey. He was the pioneer and settled on Strickle place in 1804, coming from Prince George County, Virginia. We do not know the data of his birth but he is buried in Dover Cemetery in an unmarked grave. His brother David, who settled near Dover in 1827, was father of Johnathan Bailey, founder of Whittier, California. Another brother was father of James E. Bailey, the great Quaker preacher who was grandfather of Governor Stubbs of Kansas and another brother Josiah whose descendents live in Whittier, California. Susannah Bailey Hunnicutt's mother was Mary Haworth, a sister of Mahlon Haworth, who emigrated to Ohio from Fall River, East Tennessee. For this line see Haworth Geneology. For wife of David Hunnicutt see late write up, and for Haworth-West-Johnson lines, see later articles.

Notes:

Susannah B. Hunnicutt's mother was Mary Haworth Bailey, wife of Daniel Bailey, brother of David Bailey from Virginia. When they were married 100 pumpkin pies were baked in a mud oven for the celebration.

Abidon Bailey emigrated from England in 1777. His first wife was Mary Hargrave. He was father of Daniel Bailey and David Bailey, the Clinton County pioneers.

John E. Peebles and Mary Ann Hunnicutt were first cousins.

Johnathan Bailey's father was David Bailey, brother of Daniel Bailey, the pioneer.

Almeda Peebles was this David Bailey's wife.

David Bailey settled at the Dover place now owned by Lena Hunnicutt.

THE WESTS

"The Wests were 'An Ancient Family of Knightly Rank' connected by ties of marriage and descent with royal lineages and other families of peerage, and among the landed gentry of the type throughout the Kingdom."

"Sir Thomas de West, the first of whom there is a record, was knighted in 1326. There seems no doubt but he was the ancestor of the English Wests. However, no genealogical descent has been traced from him down to the Wests of this sketch.

The Wests had lived at Long Crendon since the time of Richard II. They became Quakers in 1667. Col. James West, the friend and proselyte of Hampden, was the first West Quaker.

William West of Long Crendon, Buckinghamshire, England, married Elizabeth ____ who died 8th month, 6th, 1684. He died 1st month, 11th, 1696. They were both buried at Meadley. They were Quakers.

Thomas West of the family of Lord Delaware, son of William and Elizabeth was married about 1682 to Ann (or Rachel) Gilpin, daughter of Thomas and Joan Bartholemew Gilpin of Shillingsford, Oxfordshire.

FIRST GENERATION

John West, son of Thomas and Ann (or Rachel) Gilpin West, was born 10-28-1690 at Long Crendon, Bucks, England. He first married in 1714 to Elizabeth Beisley. They were married by Friends ceremony at Warborough Monthly Meeting, Oxfordshire. He came to Pennsylvania to visit his brothers and to make a survey of the situation with the idea of bringing his family, but the death of his wife evidently changed his plans and he did not return to England until 1764. He married, second, Sarah Pearson, daughter of Thomas and Margery Smith Pearson of Marple, Chester County, Pennsylvania, in 1718? John and Sarah had 10 children, Joseph, Sr. being the oldest and Benjamin, the artist, the youngest. The names of the ten are:

1. Joseph, Senior, married Jane Owen
2. Sarah married Howell
3. Mary married Dr. Jonathan Morris
4. William (Quaker) married Hannah Shaw
5. Rachel married John L. Clarkson
6. Elizabeth married John Morris
7. Samuel - a Revolutionary soldier
8. John West, Jr., married Margaret Pearson Terrett
9. Hugh
10. Benjamin (artist) married Elizabeth Shewell

William was the only Quaker among these children. The father John was a Quaker in good standing in England, and joined Friends in Pennsylvania (Coshen) in 1759. Sarah Pearson had been a member of Friends in Chester County, Penn. but at the time of her marriage, she had been disowned, so that the marriage was not accomplished in the meeting. "Friend West and his wife have blameless reputations. They have had ten children whom they have carefully brought up in the fear of God and the Christian Religion." John West's family were friends of the Anthony Wayne family.

Benjamin West, the artist, the youngest of the 10 children of John and Sarah Pearson West, was born in Springfield Township, Chester (now Delaware) County, Pennsylvania, 10-10-1738; married Sept. 2, 1764 Elizabeth Shewell who was born Nov. 1, 1741, and died Dec. 6, 1814. Benjamin died March 10, 1820, and was buried in the crypt of St. Paul's in London, March 29, 1820. His burial was conducted with great pomp. His tomb is near those Landseer, Millais, Turner, and Reynolds.

SECOND GENERATION -- JOSEPH WEST, SENIOR, AND JANE OWEN WEST

Joseph West, Sr., oldest child of John and Sarah Pearson West, was born in 1713 and died in 1802 at the home of his son George in Pittsylvania County, Va. In Feb. or March, 1740, he married Jane Owen (born 6-9-1720), daughter of John and Hannah Maria Owen. Jane died in Pittsylvania County, Va., 12-20-1791. Her death is recorded in minutes of South River Monthly Meeting, Campbell County, Va. Joseph and Jane West had 10 children: the first three were born in Pennsylvania, and the other seven in Fairfax County, Va. Their names were:

1. Isaac married Annanna Lewis
2. Tacy " Jacob Nichols
3. Sarah " Jesse Patey
4. Owen " Elizabeth Martin
5. Hannah --- never married
6. John (Revolutionary soldier) married Mary King
7. George married Betty Templeton
8. Joseph, Jr., (born 1757) married Judith Ballinger
Revolutionary soldier, 1777-1782.

9. James

10. Benjamin married Rebecca Canifax. He died in Pike County, Ohio, 1843.

Church records prove that Joseph West was not a Quaker, and that his marriage to Jane Owen was not accomplished by Friends' ceremony. None of their children except Tacy joined Friends until Owen united with the Society after removing to Ohio.

THIRD GENERATION -- OWEN AND ELIZABETH MARTIN WEST

Owen West, fourth child of Joseph West, Sr., and Jane Owen West, married Elizabeth Martin. Fourteen children were born to this union, all of whom were born in Pittsylvania County in Virginia, and thirteen of whom went with their father and mother to Clinton County, Ohio, in 1810. All of them lived on land which their father, Owen West, gave them. On Dec. 26, 1809, Owen and Elizabeth West sold 1400 acres lying on Straight Stone Creek, and including "said West's water grist mill, saw mill, and cotton machine with all the appurtenances thereto belonging" for fourteen hundred pounds current money of Virginia. Before 1810 Owen West disposed of all his holdings in Pittsylvania County, Va. and took his family to what is now Clark Township, Clinton County, Ohio. After becoming settled in their new home, Owen and Elizabeth and all their children, except Nancy and Mary, joined Friends. Clear Creek Monthly Meeting of Friends held July 29, 1814 received their request. Owen and Thomas were of age and made request with their parents and minor brothers and sisters. Names of the children of Owen and Elizabeth Martin West were:

1. Nancy West, born 1-25-1784, married Robert Terrell
2. Jane West, " 7-29-1785, " John Terrell (Charles Terrell's grandmother)
3. William West, " 12-19-1787, " Sarah Hamerick, Sophia Hadley
4. Mary West, " 12-29-1788, " Joshua Batterton (Jessie Hatton's great Grand.)
5. Susan West, " 10-22-1790, " Joseph Wright
6. Owen West, " 8-27-1792, " Lorena Douglas - Illinois
7. Thomas West, " 7-18-1794, " Tamar Hadley, sister to Sarah Hadley
(Thomas is Rattle Haworth Hadley's grandfather)
8. James West, " 2-24-1796, " Elizabeth Liggott (Father of Col. Owen West of Lynchburg, Ohio)
9. Peyton West, " 4-20-1798, " Sarah Hadley, sister to Tamar Hadley
10. Elizabeth West 11-13-1799, " Esakiel Haworth, (brother of Richard M. Haworth who was son-in-law of Thomas and Tamar Hadley West.)

11. Amelia West, born 12-27-1801, married James Haworth (father of Charles. Haworth)
 12. Rebecca West, " 5-57-1804, " Joseph Garner
 13. Margaret West, " 4- 8-1806, died in infancy
 14. John West, " 4- 3-1809, married Elizabeth George and went to Illinois
- Owan West and Elizabeth Martin West with others signed the marriage certificate of George D. Haworth and Edith Hadley, 9-4-1817; also that of Thomas West and Tamar Hadley, either 5-14-1818 or 5-4-1820, in Newberry Monthly Meeting at Martinsville, Ohio.

Thomas and Tamar Hadley West had these children:

1. Sarah West married David Pyle, and had four children, Tamar Anna, Allen, and Thomas all of whom died unmarried, and Emma who married John (?) Burrass and had four children:

The Wests

The D.A.R. Magazine for March, 1930, contains a list of persons of Pittsylvania County, Virginia, who furnished provision for the army during the Revolution, under the Commissioners Provisions Law. In the list is the name of Joseph West. There were only two Joseph Wests in that county at that date, one being Joseph Senior, and the other Joseph, Junior, who was a soldier in the army and not in a position to furnish provisions. It follows, therefore, that his father, Joseph was the man thus listed.

The included copy is of the photostat of the original record which is in the files of the Virginia State Library. The reader should note that the price of the cow is crossed out, showing that the animal was a gift. This is only one record but enough to verify the family tradition that Joseph West furnished provisions for the army, and is listed as a Patriot.

Such service entitles his descendants to membership in the D.A.R. and S.A.R., other records being satisfactory. Family tradition credits Joseph and his son, Owen, with furnishing mill products and guns, but that tradition remains unverified, although most probable, in view of the fact that Joseph had two sons and a brother in the Revolution.

Photostat or certified copies of the original records may be obtained from the Virginia State Library at Richmond, Va., for a fee.

I hereby certify I have received for public use of Joseph West one cow adjudged to weight two hundred and seventy-five gross for which payment at the rate of two-pence-the-pound shall be made according to an act of Assembly passed in the October session one thousand seven hundred and eighty!

Given under my hand this twenty-fourth day of September one thousand seven hundred and eight one.

Benjamin West, Famous Quaker Artist

By Leonard S. Kenworthy

(This is the first in a series of articles in which the author attempts to show that Quakerism has contributed not only great religious leaders to the world, but that it has likewise produced scientists, educators, statesmen, diplomats, and authors who have achieved renown in their respective fields.)

From an obscure lad in the Pennsylvania wilderness, Benjamin West became the most distinguished English painter of his day and the first great American artist.

His birth at Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, on April 10, 1738 in a simple, Quaker, colonial home was an odd contrast to his later position as historical painter to King George the third of England, and President of the Royal Society of Great Britain.

His first acquaintance with colors was made by friendly Indians who lived near his home and often took him into the woods to teach him archery and hunting. They showed him how to make red and yellow paints and how to combine these with the blue which he obtained from his mother's indigo. This was the beginning of his interest in colors and painting.

One day while his sister was visiting the West home, and everyone was out of the house, Benjamin sketched his little niece in her crib. On his mother's return she spied the paper and instead of chiding him for his frivolity, as he had expected, she kissed him and praised him for the remarkable likeness which he had drawn. Later on West said, "It was this kiss from my mother that made me a painter."

Benjamin had never seen a point brush but he had understood that they were made of camel's hair fastened to a quill. His desire for one was so great that he conceived the idea of using the hair from the cat's tail to make his brushes. Without saying anything to the family he proceeded to extract the necessary equipment for his paint brush. His father soon became worried about the appearance of the family cat and upon investigation discovered the experiment that Benjamin had been making. This prevented further brush making in the West family.

At twenty-two years of age Benjamin West went to Italy to study the masterpieces in the art galleries of that country.

After a stay of several months' duration, he went to England where he remained for the rest of his life. It was in the church of St. Martin's-in-the-Field that he was married to Elizabeth Schewell in 1765.

Because of financial circumstances West could not devote all of his time to painting, so some of his friends endeavored to raise sufficient funds to make him financially independent. Among these distinguished persons were Doctor Johnson, the writer; Edmund Burke, the statesman; and particularly Dr. Drummond, archbishop of the Church of England.

Art appreciation was at a low ebb in England and these men were unsuccessful in their attempt. Therefore, they presented their case to the King who made Benjamin West historical painter to the court of England.

There is a story in a letter of Johnson to Boswell, dated 1793, in which he says that he had been thinking of writing a history of the English language, but that he had been so busy with his other occupations that he had not had time to do so.

From an account in the Dictionary of the English Language, it appears that Johnson had been thinking of writing a history of the English language, but that he had been so busy with his other occupations that he had not had time to do so.

Among his most famous paintings are "Penn's Treaty with the Indians," "King Lear," "Christ Rejected," and "Christ Healing the Sick in the Temple." The latter picture hangs in the Friends' Hospital in Philadelphia, where admission charges for its inspection, during many years, have paid for the care of a large number of invalids. His most famous historical scene is the Death of General Wolfe.

After the Death of Benjamin West on December 6, 1817, he was buried in St. Paul's cathedral near the graves of Sir Joshua Reynolds, noted English portrait painter, and Sir Christopher Wren, famed English architect.

His contributions to Christian art did a great deal towards removing the objections Friends had held to painting and made him a valued personage both to the Society of Friends and to the world.

Issue of Owen and Elizabeth Martin West

Fourteen children were born to this union. All were born in Pittsylvania County, Virginia and 13 of them went with their father and mother to Clinton County, Ohio in 1810. All of them lived on land which Owen West gave them. On December 26, 1809 Owen and Elizabeth West sold 1400 acres lying on straight Stone Creek, and including "said West's Water grist mill, saw mill and cotton machine with all the appurtenances there to belonging" for fourteen hundred pounds current money of Virginia. Before 1810 Owen West disposed of all his holdings in Pittsylvania County, Virginia and took his family to what is now Clark Township Clinton Co., Ohio; after becoming settled in their new home Owen and Elizabeth and all of their children, except Nancy and Mary, joined friends-- Clear Creek Monthly Meeting of Friends held July 29, 1814 received their request. Owen and Thomas were of age and made request with their parents and minor brothers and sisters.

Benjamin West, the Artist

Benjamin West, the youngest of the ten children of John and Sarah Pearson West was born in Springfield Township Chester (now Delaware) County, Pennsylvania, 10-10-1738, married September 2, 1764 to Elizabeth Showell who was born Nov. 1, 1741 and died Dec. 6, 1814. Benjamin died March 10, 1820, and was buried in the crypt of St. Paul's in London, March 29, 1820. His burial was conducted with great pomp. His tomb is near those of Landseer, Millais, Turner, and Reynolds.

Mary West, daughter of Owen and Elizabeth Martin West and sister of Thomas West who married Tamar H. Adley, married Joshua Betterton. She was nicknamed "Polly" Betterton. Their daughter, Nellie Betterton, married a Mr. Barr whose daughter Lenna Barr married Mr. Titus. The Barrs had six daughter, only two of whom are living Lenna F. Titus (Jessie Patton's mother) and Almada Beltz. (Stella Gregory Patton's mother must have been one of them?)

Mary West Betterton & her husband, Joshua Betterton, had six children;

1. Nellie Betterton Barr (Mrs Titus mother)
2. Susan Betterton married Amos Garner. They had no children, but by another marriage he is the father of Dr. Eldon Garner.
3. Mary (Polly) Betterton married Riley Garner. Their daughter Callie Garner lived to be past eighty at Martinsville.
4. Isaiah Betterton married Melinda Sewell and Mary Moon Moore. They lived in same house
5. Pleasant Betterton married Hannah Ann Jackson; Farmers Station. Mrs. Titus They had a son Walter. Lived with uncles, and him at Farmers Station.
6. Owen Betterton married Betsy Moon; Peoria, Ill.

William West of Long Crendon, Buckinghamshire, England, married Elisabeth. He died 1-11-1696. Elisabeth died 8-6-1624. They were Quakers. Both were buried at Meadla.

Thomas West, of the family of Lord Deleware, son of William and Elizabeth, married about 1622 to Ann (or Rachel) Gilpin, daughter of Thomas and Joan Bartholomew Gilpin of Shillingsford, Oxfordshire.

John West, son of Thomas and Ann (or Rachel) Gilpin West, was born 10-28-1690 at Long Crendon, Bucks, England. Son was named Thomas. He first married in 1714 to Elizabeth Daisley. They were married by Friends' ceremony at Warborough Monthly Meeting. He came to Pennsylvania to visit the situation with the idea of bringing his family, but the death of his wife evidently changed his plans and he did not return to England until 1764.

FIRST GENERATION

He married second Sarah Pearson, daughter of Thomas and Margery Keith Pearson of Markle, 1713 (?) Chester Co., Pennsylvania. John and Sarah had 10 children: Joseph Senior being the oldest and Benjamin, the artist, the youngest.

SECOND GENERATION

Joseph West Sr., oldest, son of John and Sarah Pearson West, married Jane Owen West.

THIRD GENERATION

Owen West, fourth child of Joseph, Sr., and Jane Owen West, married Elizabeth Martin West. Thomas, son of Owen and Elizabeth M. West married Tamar Hadley.

Thomas, son of Owen and Elizabeth Martin West, married Tamar Hadley.

Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas and Tamar Hadley West, Haworth, married Richard Milroy-Haworth.

"The Wests were 'An Ancient Family of Knightly Rank connected by ties of marriage and descent with royal lineages and other families of peerage, and among the landed gentry of the oldest type throughout the Kingdom.'"

"Sir Thomas de West, the first of whom there is a record, was knighted in 1326." There seems no doubt but he was the ancestor of the English Wests. However, no genealogical descent has been traced from him down to the Wests of this sketch.

The Wests had lived at Long Crendon since the time of Richard II.

They became Quakers in 1667. Col. James West, the friend and proselyte of Hampden, was the first West Quaker.
